Photography Tuition

Gain skills you can use every day to improve your business photography and help you fall back in love with taking pictures.

Your mobile phone or DSLR tuition can be delivered via zoom or in person and will be tailored to suit you.

Together we'll run through what you'd like to achieve in terms of lighting, composition, understanding your camera and how to make improvements as well as workflow & editing.

Let me know which areas you want to work on to get the most out of our time.

So, if you're ready to book some training please give me a call and make a transfer to Sandra Sergeant HSBC 400412 - 21213032.

It's £40 for an hour or £120 for 3.5 hours.

Additional product and website photographic training can be booked as add on sessions or standalone tuition.
